- An impressive permanent exhibition that takes visitors on a journey through the history and stories of motor racing at Silverstone, set against the wider context of the sport. Being able to get up close and personal to some of the world's most iconic vehicles and learn the stories behind some of the most famous motor sporting moments in history is what our visitors come for. We are privileged and honored to be able to share our unique, yet extensive collection in the Museum.
- A Collections and Research Centre housing the British Racing Drivers' Club (BRDC) archive and other motorsport collections, as well as a specialist library and research room.
- Flexible learning spaces for educational groups to visit the Museum and experience specially developed workshops where inspiring children to study science, technology, engineering and math's (STEM) is at the heart of everything we do.
- Unique conference and banqueting facilities, ideal for meetings, gala dinners, product launches and events.
- Sim Suite at Silverstone, featuring seven pro-grade simulators that provide visitors and guests with a realistic race-driving experience – and the opportunity to test their skills behind the wheel.

At Silverstone Museum, we ensure that the heritage of Silverstone and British motor racing is explained and interpreted for today's public, while the Collections and Research Centre ensures that it is protected for future generations.

ABOUT SILVERSTONE HERITAGE LTD

Silverstone Heritage Ltd (SHL) is an independent, not-for-profit organisation (set up as a Community Benefit Society), which was responsible for developing, and now operating, Silverstone Museum which opened to the public in October 2019.

The society's "objectives" as set out within the organisation's rules are as follows:

'The advancement of education for the public benefit in the history and heritage of Silverstone Circuit and the surrounding area, its landscape, archaeology and its history as a centre for British motor sport. In particular, but not exclusively, by establishing a museum for the permanent exhibition and preservation of artefacts, archives and collections of educational and/or historic value'

As a not-for-profit organisation, all monies generated from commercial trading are utilised to cover our operating expenses and servicing financial obligations, with excess monies then being fully re-invested into the museum. This means our exhibition, our education activity, archives, research and our collection ultimately supports the work we do to educate, inspire and engage the public with the legacy and stories of Silverstone and its role in British motor racing.
